- Please gather in the Cumberland Room at the Holiday Inn by the Bay for a 4:15 p.m. departure.

Sunday, July 27th

Maine Wildlife Park

All Ages

We'll start the day visiting the Maine Wildlife Park which provides a safe refuge to all kinds of Maine wildlife who have been brought to the park because they have been injured, orphaned or become human dependent. Moose, lynx, black bear, bobcat, porcupine, raccoon and mountain lion are just to name a few who have made the Wildlife Park their home either temporarily or permanently. www.state.me.us/ifw/education/wildlifepark.htm

Range Pond State Park

All Ages

The natural beauty of Range Pond State Park is what attracts people to visit the park and enjoy the beaches, ponds and campgrounds. The Park offers wide sandy beaches for swimming, picnicking and playing. Leisurely walks are a must on the two-miles of easy trails comprised of old logging roads and railroad beds.

- Please gather in the Cumberland Room at the Holiday Inn by the Bay for a 9:30 a.m. departure.

Evening Activity:

Village Café for Dinner and Movies in Falmouth
